BIO

Discovering music production at 14, he quickly found his passion in the Bouncy Midtempo genre after experimenting with various musical styles. These explorations greatly influenced his unique production approach. In 2023, he marked his entry into the music world with his first three releases on 'down.' and 'Tipping Point' labels, showcasing his evolving talent.

But NUAH's talents extend beyond music production. Balancing his life as a software developer, he also offers educational Ableton workshops, sharing his knowledge and skills with others. Known for his boundless creativity, NUAH always has a thousand ideas and projects underway, which may have even led him to start with music.

NUAH's DJ sets stand out for their uniqueness, born from dedicated hours spent at home with synthesizers, crafting custom parts of his sets. His performances, are experiences characterized by deep, resonant basslines, a hallmark of his own tracks.

Hospitality Rider
